

Twas the Night After Christmas

Kids'
Scores

A Christmas
Musical for Children

Created
by:

Pam Andrews

Arranged

by: John DeVries

Hello everyone!

Welcome to ~~Twas the Night After Christmas~~. I am so delighted to again be bringing you another Christmas musical. I love Christmas! Yes, we are so busy, especially as choir directors, that we often do not shop for presents until the days AFTER the musical. We are the last to put our decorations up and also the last to take them down. We are the last to mail or email out our Christmas cards. Christmas is a wild time...but I still love it.

Christmas is an official day that we REMEMBER JESUS! On the evening of December 24th my family heads to our Christmas Eve service at church. We then come home, eat chili and cheese dip, then my husband, Dave, reads the Christmas story from the Bible. When the kids were little we would head out in our car to drive around in our pj's looking at Christmas lights while listening to Christmas carols on the radio. Christmas morning, we all get up and head to the living room to open presents. FUN!!! Finally, Dave and I head to the kitchen to make our traditional Christmas breakfast of pancakes, eggs, bacon, sausage, biscuits and gravy. Even writing these traditions down to share with you is great fun.

BUT, the next day, Christmas is over, not to return for 364 days. Christmas, OVER? How terrible! Okay, I know, many of us are ready for our normal routine to return, but in our hearts don't we all wish we had the spirit of joy throughout the year?

For some time now, the Lord has laid the dilemma of how, as believers, we can keep the joy of Jesus and his birth in our hearts throughout the year. ~~Twas the Night After Christmas~~ is the wonderful musical He gave me as inspiration.

The annual Christmas celebrations are over. A family is about to store away the decorations when the mom decides to separate some of the decorations for a yard sale. The Angel is worn and has a broken wing because she is a favorite toy of the daughter, Leigh. Should the angel go to the yard sale? The joy is that in the musical, the decorations actually come to life and console the angel. But in the end, the mom uses the broken angel to remind the family of Jesus and his love throughout the year.

Index of CD Points

	Listening CD	Split Track CD
Twas the Overture	1	1
It's Christmas.	2	4
Scene 1	3
His Name Is Jesus	4	12
Scene 2	5
Celebrate	6	20
Scene 3	7
Yard Sale	8	35
Scene 4	9
You Gotta Look Up	10	41
Scene 5	11
Angels Medley	12	48
Scene 6	13
Dear Lord	14	56
Scene 7	15
Remember Jesus Every
Day of the Year	16	66
Scene 8	17
Christmas Should Happen
Each Day—Final	18	73
Twas the Bow Music	19	80

Index of Songs & Scenes

Opening Scene	4
It's Christmas	5
Scene 1	9
His Name Is Jesus	11
Scene 2	15
Celebrate	18
Scene 3	23
Yard Sale	25
Scene 4	28
You Gotta Look Up	29
Scene 5	33
Angels Medley	34
Scene 6	38
Dear Lord	39
Scene 7	43
Remember Jesus Every Day of the Year	46
Scene 8	50
Christmas Should Happen
Each Day—Final	51
'Twas the Bow Music	55

Opening Scene

(Living Room—The family is gathered in their robes around the TV watching a Christmas Concert.)

CD: 2(Over music)

Announcer: (Standing in front of the choir.)

Well, folks the clock on the wall says that we're out of time. We hope you have had a wonderful Christmas Day. Now we want to bring a little joy to you out there in TV land. So to close our show we will be hearing from the Union Elementary Kids' Choir. This is Jack Holiday along with the staff and crew of Holiday's Christmas Show, wishing you a very Merry Christmas! See you again next year!

It's Christmas

CD: 2 Split: 4

Joyfully, with energy ♩ = 94

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS

Arr. by John DeVries

Split: 5

A choir

Light the lights; trim the tree, the 8 wreath is on the door. Christ-mas cards have all been sent, pre-sent on the floor. "Si-lent Night," "We Three Kings," the 12 car-ol-ers all sing: "The twen-ty-fifth is fi-n'lly here.

10

14

Split: 6

opt. upper harm. B

Now the bells will ring." It's Christ-mas; it's Christ-mas. Ex cite-ment's in the air. It's Christ-mas; it's Christ-mas.

17

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Scene 1 CD: 3

(Living Room—Whole family, Dad turns off the TV.)

Matt: That was a great show, dad. That kids' choir was awesome.

Dad: It sure was. I don't know about you all, but I'm thinking this was the best Christmas ever.

Mom: Sure was. I just love Christmas!

Leigh: You guys say that every year.

Dad: Well, maybe we do. Christmas is special. I like the decorations and Christmas spirit AND all that delicious Christmas cooking. Your mom makes a mean red velvet cake.

Mom: I even like Christmas shopping for you guys.

Leigh: I love all the decorations. I think our tree is the prettiest one we've ever had.

Mom: I love all the decorations, too, Leigh. Just look how pretty our house looks. There's the wreath on the door.

Dad: Wasn't that the wreath we got at that flea market on our vacation?

Mom: Yes, and that's where we also bought that Salmark Keepsake Christmas Ornament. You know, the one we hang in the middle of the tree. The one with our family picture in the middle.

Matt: Yeah, I like that ornament...shows how totally awesome I look.

Mom: I think my favorite might be our Christmas tree.

Dad: I do like going to the Christmas tree farm and cutting it down each year.

Matt: I helped with the cutting this time.

Leigh: Helped...you just held the tree while Dad cut.

- Matt: Like I said...I helped.
- Mom: You know what my favorite decoration is...
- Dad: You are a "star" woman.
- Mom: Yes, I must admit, I just love our star. It's the most beautiful star in the world to me.
- Matt: Mom, you just like it because you've had that star since you were a kid.
- Mom: You may be right, Matt, but I still love that old star. It reminds me of the Wise Men that traveled to see Jesus. Christmas is just not Christmas without our Christmas tree star.
- Leigh: I got to put the star on top this year. I like the star, too, mom.
- Matt: I think the lights are awesome. It is really cool to see them blink on the tree and in the yard. Hey dad, do you think we could put the outside lights into a computer program next year? That would be massive.
- Dad: We'll see, Matt.
- Leigh: I love the Mary and Joseph and Baby Jesus. Hey, Dad, how did Jesus get his name?
- Dad: Leigh, Jesus is God's son. The angel Gabriel actually appeared to Mary and told her to name her baby Jesus...which by the way means, "God will Help."
- Mom: And just imagine how many people Jesus has helped!
- Dad: Too many to count. Jesus...what a wonderful name! Leigh, could you hand me my guitar.
- Leigh: I'm feeling a song coming on.

His Name Is Jesus

CD: 4 Split: 12

Moderately ♩ = 84

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

A

1 4 Father:

Here we are_ to - geth - er;

6

we're a fam - i - ly._

Noth - ing could be bet - ter than this time a - round the Christ - mas tree. But we must all_ re - mem - ber

8

10 we are not_ a - lone. Yes, there is One_ Who loves us; He 12 Split: 13 + choir, opt. upper harm.

makes our hearts His throne. His name is

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Copyright © 2011 by Pam Andrews Publishing, 1207 Spearpoint Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 USA. All Rights Reserved.
UNAUTHORIZED DUPLICATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

Scene 2 CD: 5

(Living Room—Whole family, Dad puts down his guitar.)

Dad: So you see, kids, Christmas is all about Jesus.

Leigh: Another favorite Christmas memory is you singing and playing your guitar, Dad.

Mom: That was wonderful, dear, but, alas, the clock on the wall says it's about that time.

Matt: Oh, mom, please! Can't we stay up a little longer?

Leigh: I'm not even tired. I don't want Christmas to end! Just think, tomorrow night will be "Twas the night after Christmas." That sounds so terrible. We'll have to wait twelve whole months until Christmas comes again.

Matt: Or 52 weeks...

Leigh: Or 365 days.

Matt: Hey Dad, where's your cell phone?

Dad: Here it is son.

Matt: (Matt takes Dad's cell phone and multiplies on his cell phone) Or 8760 hours. (Matt continues multiplying) or 525,600 minutes or 31,536,000 seconds.

Leigh: Stop, Matt, you are making me even more depressed.

Dad: Hey kids, don't you remember. We still have more fun to look forward to. We'll be heading to Grandma's this week for a visit. I hear she has baked her famous Christmas tree cookies.

Matt: Yes, one or Grandmas' Christmas tree cookies and I'm smiling all day.

Dad: But, before we go, we have lots of work to do.

Mom: Yes, we need to have all the Christmas decorations boxed and put away before the trip.

- Dad: In fact, I brought the boxes down from the attic a little while ago so we could get right to work in the morning. (Dad points to the boxes)
- Leigh: I love seeing Grandma, but I don't like taking down the tree and decorations. It means Christmas is officially over.
- Mom: I know, Leigh. I love the tree, too, but we'll be gone for a week and when we come home Dad and I go back to work and you two have to head back to school...so the tree and the decorations have to go.
- Matt: What's with the yard sale box, mom?
- Mom: I just thought we might clean out some of the older decorations as we put things away. Out with the old and in with the new!
- Matt: (Matt picks up the angel) Hey, I think we could begin with this old angel. Look, the wings are broken.
- Leigh: (Leigh grabs the angel from Matt) No, not the angel. She's my favorite. I love her sparkly wings.
- Matt: More like bent wings. Look at her. Her wings are definitely not flight worthy. Sleeping with that angel every night has totally left her looking yard sale ready.
- Mom: Maybe we can shop for a new angel next year, Leigh.
- Leigh: No way, she's beautiful...simply beautiful. (to the angel) Don't listen Christmas Angel. You're still just as pretty as ever.
- Dad: Don't worry, Leigh. We can talk about it later. Come on, maybe we have time for a Christmas book.
- Matt: Okay, I'll get the book.
- Mom: I'll get some hot chocolate.
- Leigh: Good night, Christmas Angel. (Leigh sets the angel on the table, the family exits.)

(Ornament Set)

(Music and smoke machine. The Choir puts on their baseball hats which are decorated with lights, miniature trees, ornaments, stars, and wreaths.)

- Chris: (To the choir) Merry Christmas fellow decorations!
- Choir: Merry Christmas!
- Chris: Wow, it's so great to finally be able to move. My branches are stiff from standing so tall.
- Berry: (Arms above head, hands clasped then down to sides) I know, Chris, my arms are exhausted from all that hanging. I thought the humans would never leave.
- Blink: Blink, blink, blink...are all my lights working, Star?
- Star: You're looking great, Blink. Very colorful.
- Blink: Good. I was worried that one of my circuits was malfunctioning.
- Sal: Excuse me. Your lights have been interrupting my twirl.
- Star: Cut it out Sal. You are no more special than the rest of us.
- Choir: Yeah, we're special too. We look good. I love my star and lights.etc.
- Sal: You must be joking. I am a Salmark ornament...a keepsake. You all can be replaced. I am one of a kind.
- Star: Oh, brother. Get off your high limb and join the rest of us, Sal. Christmas is almost over. We have only a few hours left. Look how beautiful the human home is this year. There are wreaths and lights; stars and Christmas trees everywhere. It seems the mom has decorated every room this year.
- Sal: A little over done if you ask me. So many decorations...lacks overall taste and elegance.
- Choir: (Choir is grumbling.) Can you believe that? Dude! Oh brother. He is simply unbelievable. How annoying!
- Star: Sal, Remember, 'tis the season to be jolly. The mom in this house always made the house festive and colorful. All these decorations just add to the celebration. It's Christmas, Sal. It's time we celebrate!

Celebrate

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

CD: 6 Split: 20

Energetic swing, in "2" ♩ = 90

Deck the halls with boughs of hol - ly.

Deck the halls with boughs of hol - ly.

Fa, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la.

Look at us; we all are blessed. We are blessed a - bove the rest. We've a job we do each year. We're spread-ing joy and Christ-mas cheer. Let's make things per-fect-ly clear.

Let's make things per-fect-ly clear.

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Copyright © 2011 by Pam Andrews Publishing, 1207 Spearpoint Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 USA. All Rights Reserved.
UNAUTHORIZED DUPLICATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

Scene 3 CD: 7

(Ornament Set)

(Angel moves to the corner and is looking sad.)

Star: Hey, Angel, why the long face?

Angel: Just look at me, Star. My wings are drooping. I really like my little human friend, but all her hugging has knocked off most of my sparkles. I fear I'm not pretty enough to watch over the manger any more.

Choir No. Gasp. You are fine. You are still needed. etc.

Mary: You are lovely, my dear. And haven't you heard, beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

Sal: Yes, beauty is only skin deep. Though, you must admit my shine is definitely brighter than all the other ornaments.

Joseph: Sal...you are supposed to be making Angel feel better. The little human plays with us, too. We're not perfect.

Angel: But, you are the nativity. You have Baby Jesus. You're what Christmas is all about. I'm just a broken angel. Didn't you hear the humans...I can be replaced.

Sal: I must say you do look a little bit droopy. It is so nice to be a Salmark ornament. We are of the highest quality. Keepsakes, you know! You angels always seem to end up on some yard sale table.

Berry: Angel, don't listen to Sal. Just because he is a Salmark Ornament he thinks he knows everything!

Chris: Yeah, Cut it out, Sal.

Blink: Angel, you look great. In fact you twinkle!

Angel: Thanks Blink, but I'm afraid Sal is right. You heard the humans...yard sale.

Sal: Last year the humans got rid of the entire box of Christmas ornaments. I heard they were hanging in a Good Samaritan Store downtown and they were all sold to different families.

Berry: (Shaking head.) Yes, that was a sad day.

Blink: Be quiet, Sal. You're scaring Angel.

Chris: Angel you won't be in a human yard sale. You'll be joining us in the storage box and will be ready for Christmas next year. Just wait, you'll see.

Sal: I wouldn't be so sure.

Yard Sale

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

CD: 8 Split: 35

Moderately ♩ = 86

1 Sal A

You think that all is fine,

4

eve - ry-thing's di - vine, You are look - ing good, just like an an - gel should. But then one lit - tle smudge will make your heart feel drudge. You're not spe - cial an - y - more, you're not 10 Split: 36 a tempo ♩ = 122 choir B rit.

6

8

head - ing to a store. At the Yard sale, you can buy this for a dime. At the yard sale, don't you

13

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Copyright © 2011 by Pam Andrews Publishing, 1207 Spearpoint Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 USA. All Rights Reserved.
UNAUTHORIZED DUPLICATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

Scene 4 CD: 9

(Ornament Set)

- Star: Sal, I think that will be enough. You are upsetting Angel. All of us have our imperfections. See, one of my star points is chipped.
- Berry: And look at me. I lost some of my berries this year.
- Blink: And look, now one of my bulbs is out.
- Sal: Well, I must say, I'm in perfect condition. I'm a Salmark... "Only the best" is our motto.
- Choir: Angel, don't listen to him. Oh, brother. How annoying. Cut it out, Sal. You are upsetting Angel. etc.
- Angel: Don't worry about me, Star. I'll be okay...no matter what becomes of me. Even if I end up in the yard sale box, I know I'll still be okay.
- Chris: Maybe we can prop up those wings. I know that lots of Christmas trees have to be propped up. Seems like those dad humans just can't seem to cut straight when they are sawing us down.
- Joseph: Angel, you must listen to your friend. You must not give up.
- Mary: Yes, Joseph is right. None of us are perfect. Christmas is when we celebrate the birth of the only one who was ever perfect, Jesus. When things are looking down, we must look up.
- Star: You're right, Mary. The shepherds were in the field keeping watch over their flocks by night.
- Blink: When suddenly an angel appeared. To learn about Jesus they had to look up.
- Berry: And when the Wise Men from the east looked for Jesus, they looked up and followed the star.
- Chris: Yes, you've gotta look up, Angel. You've just gotta look up!

You Gotta Look Up

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

CD: 10 Split: 41

Bluesy, even 8ths ♩ = 70

1 2 A Solo

Look out sis-ter; trou-ble's on the way.

5

Look out broth-er; please do not de-lay. You're on the road to dis-as-ter; things are look-in' bad. Got to get your head to-geth-er, find a heart that's filled with glad-ness.

7

9

11 Split: 42 B a tempo ♩ = 190 3 choir

You got-ta look

16 C

up; dear sis-ter, you got-ta look up.

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Scene 5 CD: 11

(Ornament Set)

Sal: Yes, Angel, even I, Sal-Mark enjoy the heavenly sights. I must say, I do look at the star on the Christmas tree the entire season. And I must admit that looking up makes me feel the Christmas spirit. My namesake, Grandfather Salmark always said, "It's always darkest before the dawn."

Star: Sal, is that you? Why, that actually sounded inspiring.

Sal: We Salmarks do have a sensitive side, you know.

Blink: It's the first time we've ever seen your "sensitive side."

Berry: But, I must admit, I like it, Sal.

Chris: You are almost likable.
(To Angel) Angel, looking up is the only answer.

Mary: Yes, Angel. You have to look up. You have a purpose. You brought joy to the little human girl's heart just like the angels announced that joy was coming to the world.

Joseph: That's right, it was the angels that told the shepherds that Jesus was born.

Berry: See me. I am a never-ending circle. I remind humans of Jesus who brought a never-ending love to the world.

Chris: Look at me, Angel. I am an evergreen tree. I don't change with the season. I am always green. I remind humans that Jesus brought them eternal life.

Blink: And I 'm a light. I remind humans that Jesus brought light to a dark world.

Star: And I am a star. I lead people to Jesus.

Angel: I'll try to look up, I'll really try.

Mary: You must remember, Angel. Each of us has a purpose in God's eyes. Angels were the first to announce the King was born. Joy had come to the world. I can hear them now. "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

Angels Medley

CD: 12 Split: 48

in a moderate "2" swing feel $\text{♩} = 76$

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

1 4 A

An-gels from the realms of glo-ry

7

Wing your flight o'er all the earth; Ye who sang cre -

10 a-tion's sto - ry Now pro-claim Mes - si-ah's birth.

13 B

Come and wor-ship, come and wor-ship; Wor-ship Christ, He's our new-born King. Come and wor-ship, come and wor-ship;

16

19 Split: 49 2

Wor-ship Christ, He's our new-born King.

23 C Mary choir

All__ night, all__ day, an-gels watch - in' o-ver

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Copyright © 2011 by Pam Andrews Publishing, 1207 Spearpoint Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 USA. All Rights Reserved.
UNAUTHORIZED DUPLICATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

Scene 6 CD:13

(Ornament Set)

Sal: (Sigh) All this joy is making me tired. I am ready to crawl into my Official Salmark box and catch some z's.

Berry: Me, too, Sal. I'm feeling that wreath box.

Blink: Yes, I need a few bulbs replaced and then off to the light box I go.

Star: Me, too. Tomorrow we'll all go back to our boxes.

Chris: (Yawns) Oh, yes, tomorrow is a big day. You need to get some rest, too Angel. Don't worry. Everything will be okay.

Angel: I know everything will be all right. You all go ahead to your boxes and get some rest. I think I will just wait here on my table and enjoy the last few minutes of Christmas.

(The choir raises the brown material to look as if they are now in a box.)

(Living Room—Leigh enters and picks up the angel.)

Leigh: There you are, Little Angel. I was worried about you. I'm sorry about your wing. Just know, I think you're still pretty. Don't worry, Angel. I'm here for you. You know, my grandma is always saying...when you're worried, turn to Jesus. She says to pray and pray and pray and pray. Then, you will find peace. So before I go to sleep tonight, I'm going to say a prayer and ask Jesus to keep you safe.

Dear Lord

CD: 14 Split: 56

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

Reverently ♩ = 82

Leigh (all times.
+ choir 1 on D.S.)

1 3

Dear Lord, I know you

Angel second time only + choir 2 on D.S.

6 Al-le-lu-ia.

hear me. Dear Lord, I know you care. Dear

Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le-lu-ia.

9 Split 1st time: 57 • 2nd time: 59 • 3rd time: 62

Lord, I know You're with me. Dear Lord, I know You're

Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le-lu-ia.

12 B

there. You are my friend; You're with me

Al-le-lu-ia. You are my friend

PamAndrewsMusic.com

(At the end of the song, Leigh exits.)

Scene 7 CD: 15

(Living Room—Mom, Dad and Matt enter)

Mom: (Yawns) Okay, that box is ready to go.

Dad: Okay, honey, your wish is my command.

Matt: Hey, mom.

Mom: So you're already up and dressed. Great! Where's your sister?

Matt: Still sleeping.

Mom: I think she was having a hard time sleeping last night. Let's let her sleep a little longer.

Matt: So, what can I do to help out, mom?

Mom: Well, all these decorations are boxed and ready to go to the attic.

Matt: What about the angel, should she go in the box?

Mom: No, just leave the angel on the table I'll take care of it later. I'm heading to the attic to help dad.

Matt: Sure thing, mom. (Mom exits.) (Matt puts all the decorations in the box leaving the angel sitting on the table.)

(Ornament Set—The decorations appear in and around the storage box.)

Chris: Jump, Angel. I'll catch you.

Choir: Jump Angel, you can make it. Come on, jump. Go for it, Angel!

Star: She can't jump that far. Do you think you could fly?
Just use every aerodynamic wing effort you've got. You must make it into our box.

Choir: Fly Angel, fly. Come on. Spread your wings, Angel. Fly. You can do it.

- Angel: (Angel begins to flap her wings.) It's no use. I can't fly with this broken wing.
- Blink: I'm so sorry, Angel.
- Berry: Me, too. This is just terrible.
- Sal: I think I might cry. (Sal blows his nose)
- Joseph: We're very sorry, Angel. You will be missed.
- Mary: Please do not give up, Angel. I feel sure that there's something special out there waiting for you.
- Angel: Thanks Mary. It's okay, everyone. I'll be fine. I'm sure you're right,. Maybe there's a home out there for me...even if I have to find it through a yard sale. (Mom and Leigh enter)

(Living Room—Mom working, Leigh enters.)

- Mom: Leigh, you're up. I thought I heard you tossing and turning last night. Is everything okay?
- Leigh: I had a hard time getting to sleep, Mom. I kept worrying about the angel. I see she's not in the box. Please don't put her in the yard sale, Mom! Please!
- Mom: Don't worry, Leigh. I had a hard time sleeping, too. I kept thinking about that little angel and what we talked about last night.
- Leigh: What do you mean, mom?
- Mom: Remember, you all kept saying that you wished Christmas could happen all year through?
- Leigh: Yes, I remember.
- Mom: Well, I found some glue and glitter and I am going to fix the wing on that little angel and sprinkle her with glitter. Then, I am going to leave her out on the table. Then, all through the year when we see her, we will remember Christmas... remember Jesus and how He came to earth for us.

Leigh: Mom, that's a great idea! You seem to always be able to make things better. My prayer has been answered. I love you, mom!

Mom: Thanks, Leigh. I love you right back. I think you and Matt had a great idea. Remembering Christmas and Jesus every day is something we should definitely do. Christmas should be on our hearts and minds every day. And every time we see the angel we will remember...remember Jesus. I really love that idea.

Remember Jesus Every Day of the Year

CD: 53 Split: 66

Moderately ♩ = 70

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

1 mom: A

De - cem-ber twen-ty-fifth, what a 4 bless-ed day The birth-day of our bless-ed King, we love to cel-e-brate. We sing of Christ-mas joy; we sing of

6

8 Split: 67

Christ-mas peace. We pray that day will nev-er pass; let

10 rit. B a tempo ♩ = 82 choir

won-ders nev-er cease. Re-mem-ber

13 C

Je - sus eve-ry day of the year. Re-mem-ber

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Scene 8 CD: 17

Angel: (Angel moves center stage.)
Christmas is a wonderful time of year. We enjoy the decorations and the spirit of the holiday. But, should Christmas last only one day? Should the joy of Christ coming to earth only be celebrated on December 25th? The joy of Jesus' birth should only begin on that special December day. Christmas joy should last in the hearts of everyone the entire year. Remember the story of Jesus at Christmas, but continue to carry His joy throughout the year. Then, the night after Christmas and all the following days and nights will be wonderful because Christmas will be in our hearts every single day.

Christmas Should Happen Each Day—Finale

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS
Arr. by John DeVries

CD: 18 Split: 73

Joyfully, with energy ♩ = 94

1. Twas the night af-ter Christ - mas, and (2.) year af-ter Christ - mas, and all through the earth The world was re - joic - ing be - hearts were a - glow 'Cause Je - sus was shared so the cause of His birth. The joy of His com - ing has world all could know That Je - sus could save them and made it___ quite clear; Yes, Christ - mas_ should hap-pen each bring them good cheer; Yes, Christ - mas_ should hap-pen each day of___ the year. Ho -

day of___ the year.

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Twas the Bow Music

CD: 19 Split: 80

Joyfully, with energy ♩ = 94

Words and Music by
PAM ANDREWS

Arr. by John DeVries

1 A 10 Split: 81

13 2 B 24

39 Split: 82 ♩ = 94 opt. upper harm. C

It's Christ- mas; It's Christ- mas. Ex -

41
cite-ment's in_ the air. It's Christ- mas; it's Christ- mas.

43
Smiles are eve - ry-where The star a - top_ the Christ- mas tree

45 shines out bright for all to see. Joy has come for you and me. It's

PamAndrewsMusic.com

Copyright © 2011 by Pam Andrews Publishing, 1207 Spearpoint Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 USA. All Rights Reserved.
UNAUTHORIZED DUPLICATION PROHIBITED BY LAW

I am so excited about this musical! I love it! The Lord gave us real joy in the characters and some of His best in songs. My thanks go to John and Ramelle for all their hard work and for Rob Haines, my recording friend. He is a great guy who works tirelessly to make musicals like this happen for Pam Andrews Music.

Rob's wife, Pam, is a great friend. She is lovely in every way. Rob told me recently that he has been married to his sweet Pam for 29 years. When he said it, I saw real joy and love in his eyes. So, right then, I knew that this musical that inspires us to have the eternal joy in our hearts of the Lord should be dedicated to a love that has existed on this earth for 29 years. Yay, Rob and Pam! We love you both!

Thank you for all your work for the Lord. Just know I am here if you need anything. We have excellent resources available at Pam Andrews Music. Resource materials and the movement video make the production simple to produce. Also, this musical has a wide range and even some adult characters making casting even work for the smallest of choirs.

Have fun and know I really love you in the Lord!!!
Directors, thank you for all you are doing for the Lord with children. You are making a real difference in the world.

Living for Jesus!

Pam Andrews

You may contact Pam through the Pam Andrews Music.com website or at pamandrewsmusic@comcast.net.

Cast:

Announcer
Dad
Mom
Matt
Leigh
Angel
Chris
Berry
Blink
Star
Sal
Mary
Joseph

For T-shirt and backdrop information contact:

Tom Roland
Personalized Gifts and Apparel
888-898-6172
www.pg4u.com
OR info@pg4u.com

Twas the Night After Christmas

The annual Christmas celebrations are over.

A family is about to store away the decorations when the mom decides to separate some of the decorations for a yard sale. The angel is worn and has a broken wing because she is a favorite toy of the daughter, Leigh. Should the angel go to the yard sale? The joy is that in the musical, the decorations actually come to life and console the angel. But in the end, the mom uses the broken angel to remind the family of Jesus and his love throughout the year.

This musical has a wide range and even some adult characters making casting work even for the smallest of choirs.

It's Christmas
His Name is Jesus
Celebrate
Yard Sale
You Gotta Look Up
Angels Medley
Dear Lord

Remember Jesus Every Day of the Year
Christmas Should Happen Each Day-Finale

Staging suggestions, lesson plans, movement scripts and so much more is available in the Twas the Night After Christmas Resource Materials.

PamAndrewsMusic.com